

Isaiah 3:9

The expression of their faces bears witness against them. And they display their sin like Sodom; Woe to them! They do not even conceal it. For they have brought evil on themselves.

Just after midnight on January first, same-sex couples through out New Hampshire will gather at the State House steps to celebrate new civil union laws. Rev. Mary Wellemeyer of the Unitarian Universalist Church in Manchester will perform the group ceremony. Organizers are recruiting other officials so that couples can make vows, should they so choose. All of this became possible, because the New Hampshire Legislature passed a civil unions bill this year paving the way for same-sex couples to enter a legally binding relationship that mirrors a marriage between a man and woman. Governor John Lynch in May signed the bill into law.

Is this anything new, absolutely not! One might think that he was reading the news from ancient Sodom and Gomorrah! Do you not think that when perversion became the standard of the day in Sodom and Gomorrah, that celebrations didn't take place throughout their cities? Whenever man has taken a unified stand and severed themselves from the Ordinances and Commandments of God; celebrations in one form or other often follow. Sometimes it is a public demonstration as this public debauchery in New Hampshire; yet there is always a celebration in the heart of the person who wills to no longer submit under the Laws of God. What these men and women fail to clearly understand is that their choice not be accountable to God, will have an eternal bearing on not only this life, but also on eternity. They are certainly not free or released from standing before the Living God at the Great White Throne Judgment, and giving an account for their decadence and lawlessness! Will this also be a time of celebration for them? Will they stand in one accord in defiance of the Living God and somehow change His view of perversion, as they have with the legislators and governor of their state? My friends, these men and women will face a quivering terror, as they are sentenced to an eternity in the Lake of Fire. None of us can choose individually, or even by changing the laws of our land to live outside of God's Laws, and not face eternal consequences. What about the men and women like Rev. Mary Wellemeyer, who advocate that what God has called sin, is indeed a misunderstanding or misrepresentation of what He truly meant, that mankind cannot take literally the Word of God, that it is open to personal interpretation? What can she expect for her part in this deviant and perverted act? Her judgment will be far more severe than those who are ignorantly following!! Look with me at what Titus 1:15-16 has to say about such leaders, ¹⁵ To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. ¹⁶ They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient, and worthless for any good deed. Church, you and I have a responsibility to stand up in the face of the onslaught of hell which is seeking to tear down what God has created. You may believe that there is nothing that you can do, but that is the farthest thing from the truth. Will you please join me on the first of January to fast and pray for our country? All that is needed for sin to continue to destroy our country and our future is if you and I should choose to do nothing!
